

Disclaimer

The site at Bank Hall is a Woodland area which has rough pathways. It is a private site which is open to the public at certain times of the year. Every care is taken to ensure that the pathways are of a reasonable standard. The public are not permitted to access the site except on the published "Open Days" but may be permitted to access the site on other occasions by officials of the parties referred to below. The public are not permitted to access the Hall as it is in a dangerous state.

Unauthorised access at any other times will be considered as "Trespass" and a prosecution may result.

The Parties - Bank Hall Action Group, The Friends of Bank Hall, The Heritage Trust for the North West & The Lilford Estate Trustees cannot be responsible for any accident or injury sustained on the site. This website is owned by Mr.L.E. Taylor for and on behalf of the "Bank Hall Action Group" and "The Friends of Bank Hall". The information on this site is current, or either historic or a record of the activities of the Group. The historic information is from research by members of the group but may not be completely accurate although every care has been taken to verify such information.